COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 2.

CONSOLS from London come 100½ ex div., a slight decline from the previous day's quotation. French Rentes are unaltered at 119½, as also is Rupee Paper at 85 for Fours and 91½ for Fours-and-a-half.

In the General Produce markets there is no alteration of any kind, and Reuter's prices for metals are also without change.

PIECE-GOODS in Manchester are reported steady, and Cotton in Liverpool is said to have closed with a hardening tendency. The day's sales, however, are only estimated at 8,000 bales, and in spot prices there is no movement, although American deliveries are quoted slightly higher. In New York yesterday ready Mid-Uplands were quoted 1-16th cent higher at 10 15-16, but September shipment comes 10·64 against the previous day's quotation of 10·94 cents per lb. for August. The receipts to date give the following comparisons:

|---|---|---|---|
| Wednesday's Receipts | 5,000 | 3,700 | 1,900 |
| Five days' do. | 21,000 | 15,800 | 8,500 |
| Total since 1st September | 5,502,100 | 4,766,100 | 4,301,000 |

At the weekly biddings for Council drafts on India in London yesterday, the average rate obtained was 1s. 7 11-16d., the same as last week, and about what was anticipated here. Bar Silver is still quoted at 51 11-16d. per oz., and shipments are advised of £50,000 for this port in addition to £10,000 in gold.

EXCHANGE opened steady, within the first instance no buyers of 3 months' Credits under 1s. 7 31-32d., but with very few bills offering here and quieter advices from Calcutta, where the Bank of Bengal have reduced their rates of discount one per cent., a decidedly easier feeling supervened with a partial decline of 1-32d. from the opening level. We quote at the close:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Bank Bills on demand | 1s. 7 23-32d. to ¾ | per rupee. |
| Do. telegraphic | 1s. 7 11-16d. to 23-32 | ,, |
| Do. 3 months' sight | 1s. 7 25-32d. | ,, |
| Credits, 3 ,, ,, | 1s. 7 15-16d. | ,, |
| Documents, 3 ,, ,, | 1s. 7 31-32d. | ,, |
| Francs, 3 ,, ,, | 2f. 10c. | ,, |

Rates on Calcutta are unaltered at 100 1-16 for demand and 99½ for 60 days' sight.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been stronger to-day, and an active inquiry has prevailed at an advance of 1-16 to 3-16. Fours we now quote at Rs. 103¼ to 15-16d., Fours-and-a-half at Rs. 111 3-16 to ¼.

SHARES are firm. Bank of Bombays are again ½ per cent. firmer at Rs. 762½; Colaba Land Shares Rs. 7½ lower at Rs. 1,027½. In Press Compaines the only move is an advance of Rs. 25 in Fort. In Spinning and Weaving Mill shares, Alliance and Hindustan are Rs. 5, Khandeish and Soonderdas Rs. 10, and Bhownugger Mills Rs. 25 higher.

COTTON has again been a quiet market. Dealers have been rather more willing sellers at in some cases a reduction of Rs. 1 per candy, but the demand runs mainly on Good Dholleras, which, being rather scarce fetch full rates.

SEEDS and WHEAT remain unaltered.

FREIGHTS are dull, and for Liverpool by steam we now quote 37s. 6d. For Genoa and Trieste and Venice 45s. payable here can be done.

PIECE-GOODS are in rather better request in the bazaar. Prices are no better, but the clearances are about 300 packages a day.

COALS are quiet and unchanged.

THE BURSTING OF A RESERVOUR AT LAHORE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

ALLAHABAD, JUNE 2.

A new reservoir of the water-works at Lahore collapsed to-day. Water was being pumped into it preparatory to opening the water-supply, and when about half full one corner gave way, the water saturating the loose base through the cracks. The surrounding houses are all undermined, and compensation will be heavy. Great commotion is caused through the city, the streets being flooded. Probably the tank will have to be rebuilt at the expense of some lakhs of rupees. The reservoir was built on high ground near the fort. Mr. Pollard, the Secretary, has been called from Simla.

THE report of the Bombay Revenue Department on the state of the weather and prospects of the crops, for the week ended May 27th, states :—"Heavy rain fell in the Southern Maratha Country. Locusts appeared in Siud. Cholera appeared at Surat, where there were 42 cases and 22 deaths; one case occurred at Sukkur. Preparations for the kharif are in progress.

LORD ABERCROMBIE, who was the guest of Sir James Fergusson in Bombay in December last, is now at Simla, where he arrived the other day after a long visit to Kashmir.

WE have received the sixth number of "The Orient" magazine, published in Bombay by Miss R. Bates, which promises to take a permanent position amongst Indian periodicals. The present number contains a large amount of readable matter. There are two serial tales, "The Fiery Ordeal, a story of the siege of Paris," which has now reached its 19th chapter, and "I've allus paid my debts," by the editor. "Mary Ell'n," a short American tale, also by the editor, is concluded in the present number. Besides the fiction, there are interesting papers on Agriculture, Lithography, the Wisdom of the Aryans, the Bombay Towers of Silence (illustrated); a chapter of quotations and criticisms; a few pages of "Notes on passing events," and other contributions.

PROFESSOR AND MADAME UJFALVY, the celebrated travellers, are staying in Simla for a short time, previous to beginning their journey northwards into Central Asia.

A MEMORIAL signed by native gentlemen of the North-West Provinces has been presented to Government, praying that a Native Judge may be appointed to the Allahabad High Court.

SIRDAR ALAM KHAN, who recently left India to return to Afghanistan, has passed through Quetta. Another Sirdar, Jan Mahomed Khan, who accompanied Alam Khan to Quetta, returns to India, as he wishes to go to Kabul via Peshawar.

SIR WILLIAM MUIR has been given an extension of his appointment as Director-General of the Army Medical Department to the 1st of April, 1882.

A GALLANT correspondent writes to a contemporary :—"What can be the possible delay to the troops engaged in the issue of the medal and clasp for the Jowaki campaign? The medals are ready, and I know of one officer at home who went personally to the India Office and got his own medal. He saw there all the rest of the medals ready for issue, and there they seem likely to remain until the vis inertiæ of some irresponsible clerk is overcome."

A TELEGRAM to the Allahabad paper from Quetta, 30th May, states :—"There is no fresh news of any particular importance from Kandahar. Ayoub Khan is still sending seditious letters to the Chiefs of Pashtirud and Zemindawur, saying that Sirdars Hashim Khan and Mahomed Hassam Khan will march immediately to join them with a large number of sowars. Sirdar Shams-ud-din Khan, Abdurrahman's Deputy Governor of Kandahar, has been sending similar letters to the disaffected tribes and Chiefs at Herat; but apparently without much effect, as most of the Barakzai Chiefs at Herat have sworn to support Ayoub. Several moollahs with their followers have lately left Kandahar for Zemindawur, where Sayid Azim Shah's gathering is said to have increased to 1,500 men. Colonel St. John, Agent to the Governor-General, rode to Gulistan on Friday, and returned yesterday morning."

WE regret to hear of another case in which British soldiers are charged with being concerned in causing the death of a native. A Lance Corporal and two privates of the 5th Fusiliers, stationed at Agra, were to be tried, on the 31st May, in the Court of the Sessions Judge for culpable homicide. Nearly three weeks ago they were driven to the Taj in a ticca gari, and while there, indulged themselves, and "treated" the gariwalla, with strong drink, till all four became "the worse" for it. When leaving the Taj, as the gariwalla was too drunk to drive, one of the Europeans mounted the box, and the gariwalla was placed behind the gari. Had the latter been able to hold on to the end of the return journey, there would possibly have been no catastrophe; but he fell off on the road, and was picked up by the soldiers and thrust into the gari. The same night the gariwalla died, and the story goes that his death was occasioned, partly by his fall and some rough handling which followed, and partly by blows received from the soldiers, who are charged with causing his death.

A CORRESPONDENT, who is described as "an officer of considerable experience and great ability," writes to the Pioneer as follows regarding a Native Army Reserve :—"In such a question we must begin from first principles; there can be no doubt that the class system, so long in bad odour with men who ought to know better, should be introduced at once—i.e., each regiment to be of one class, and not, as now, a hotch-potch of Pathans and Pandies, Sikhs and Goorkhas, Dagras and Punjabi Mahomedans. Until this is done, there would be great danger in having a Landwehr and Landsturm of assimilated races which so far outnumber ours. If class regiments were made the rule, and were quartered in their own districts, there would be little fear of a general coalition of religions and races. Once this segregation of religions, and even castes, had been brought about, the system of short service might, with advantage to the State, be introduced: say, three years for infantry and six for cavalry. But under the present rules, the service should be at least 10 and 12 years, respectively. The strength of regiments of the native army, at all times, should be at least, cavalry 600 (four squadrons) and infantry 800 (10 companies). The factor of class regiments is really the most important one of all in the new arrangements which are to be made, and it would be well if the greatest attention were paid to it. I believe that a Jat at Rohtak, a Sikh at Amritsar, a Pandy at Allahabad, and a Pathan at Peshawur, would, if with their respective brethren—except in the case of the Sikh and Jat, which is unimportant—be as unlikely to amalgamate as fire and water."

THE Persian town of Lar is thus described by the correspondent of the Pioneer, who is travelling and writing about his journey through Persia :—"The town is estimated to contain 1,200 inhabited houses, and the people reckon ten souls to a house; but it is hard to believe, looking down on Lar from the limestone hills, that its population can exceed 7,000. Almost all the houses are mud, the exceptions being a few stone or brick houses belonging to traders, and, of course, the residence of the Governor; but even these are mud-plastered outside, and not distinguishable by height from the crowd of inferior buildings around them. There is a poor bazaar, roofed only for some 60 yards, and this again has been built within the last three years. Great plenty of abambars raise their domes all over the town. There has been a mud wall, but it never was strong, and has now vanished for the most past. The town is in good repair, and fairly clean, and some of its merchants trading with Bombay vid Singah, Bandar Abbas, and Tahiri are in very comfortable circumstances. Imperfect Hindustani is spoken by a few travelled individuals. I do not know that there is anything more to remark about modern Lar."

A GOOD deal has been said about the "feeling of humiliation," &c, aroused throughout Southern Africa by the terms of peace with the Boers. It is interesting to see what an influential South African newspaper says on that point. The Natal Witness of March 28th wrote :—"It is patent to all concerned that the British Government has declined in popular estimation [in this colony] because the British Government have done what no other nation dare do. They have for once given back what they had no right to retain, and have done so in the face of armed resistance to their power, and temporary defeat to their arms. We cannot believe that their lives the man with a fair knowledge of right and wrong, able to judge between generosity and cupidity, and with the shadow of a pretence to the Christian religion, who can with any consistency maintain that England's action so far has not been one of the noblest deeds that ever distinguished a civilized nation. We are prepared to make every allowance for the temporary excitement of those who, perhaps not prone to serious reflection, have thoughtlessly given expression to their feelings in a manner that is neither creditable to them as men, as Englishmen, or as Christians. But it should be remembered that His Excellency the Deputy High Commissioner is the direct representive of our Queen's authority, and that every officer and private of Her Majesty's Army is bound in honour to respect that authority. We have not the slightest fear of a Boer domination whether peace continues to prevail, or whether General Wood again doffs his diplomatic coat for the soldier's uniform; nor do we think that it is creditable to Durban, an essentially commercial community, that it should pretend to be so childishly angry because Her Majesty's Government, by a prudent course of action, have prevented its bankruptcy and ruin."

Life is responsible for the statements contained in the following paragraph :—"In his retirement—some call it "disgrace"—General Scobeleff will prepare a history of his Central Asian campaigns. He will be assisted by an English special correspondent, who is a Scotsman by blood. So, by the way, is the General himself."

THE Times writes of French proceedings in Tunis :—"We have more than once expressed our views on the policy which France has pursued in this matter, and the latest stages of the campaign have given us no reason to change them. They are the views held by almost all Englishmen of every political party; and we believe they are the views of all disinterested foreign politicians. France is playing a game of hazard, in which for the moment, indeed, she will win, though not without some difficulty, but in which the ultimate balance of loss and gain is by no means certain. "Puerile" or not, the Turkish Note only states what all the world believes when it says that the aim of France seems to be one of the three following—either "an assumption of possession, an occupation, or a protectorate of Tunis." The Bey may not be deposed; the French flag may not wave over the capital; but there are other ways not less effective than these of gaining a complete control over the government and the commerce of the Regency. We have every wish to do justice to the great achievements of France in North Africa. At an enormous cost she has introduced order and good government into a vast district which before her occupation was a nest of robbers and pirates. She has every right to insist on order being kept on her frontiers, and, if the Bey cannot keep order, to take the law into her own hands. But measures of police are one thing and measures which require 40,000 men and numerous ironclads and an advance from four points quite remote from the disturbed districts are quite another. By proceeding as she has done, almost without warning and without any European mandate, France has allowed herself to be drawn by adventurous politicians, soldiers, and financiers into an enterprise which, though it certainly is justifiable from one point of view, is yet pregnant with evil example. It is not necessary to make a strong point of the dependence of Tunis upon the Sultan, but that dependence does exist and is admitted on both sides, and if it exists, it would clearly have been more in accordance with recent precedent if France had proceeded, in the first instance at least, with some reference to Europe as a whole. She has chosen to act for herself, however, and as no nation feels its interest directly affected by this isolated action, it will have no immediate effect on any country but those immediately involved. But that will not prevent each State from taking up an attitude of reserve, and of a more or less anxious waiting for events. But the absence of positive interference or even of formal protest is not to be looked upon as equivalent to approval. Italy is not the only country in Europe that would have thought it much better both for the present and the future of international relations if France could have secured her colonial frontier with a more moderate display of military energy."

Now that the Admiralty has determined to go to America for its torpedo boats, the Army and Navy Gazette remarks, it may be glad to hear of a vessel which for offensive power is about as superior to the Herreshoff vedette as that is to a yacht's dingey, provided, of course—and this is a large proviso—that all the accounts which reach us of this wonderful boat are true. Mr. John Ericsson is the inventor and builder of the remarkable craft, which has not inappropriately names "the Destroyer." She is 130 ft. long, 12 ft. wide, and 11 ft. deep, and is designed to float chiefly under water. Her armament consists of one gun, placed in the hold, for the discharge of torpedoes weighing 1,500 lb. After leaving the gun, the torpedo is propelled under water and invisibly for about 700 ft. at a great pace. The boat itself is propelled by an engine of 1,000 horse-power, which only occupies a space of 8 ft. square, and is said to obtain a speed far surpassing that of any iron-clad. The gun, it should be mentioned, is so placed that its muzzle is always under water, and fires at the bow of the boat, where it is protected from the inflow of the water by a valve which opens when the gun is fired. The buoyancy of the boat is secured by the space between the two decks being partly filled with cork and air-bags, and the upper deck is armoured so as to be at least bullet-proof. The deck-house is protected by thick armour-plates, inclined at an angle of 45 deg., so as to deflect any shot that might otherwise injure the engines. It has been computed that forty of these vessels could be built in New York in ninety days, at the cost of one Inflexible. If all this is true, the Inflexible would do wisely to keep on this side of the Atlantic, in the event of hostilities with America, otherwise she might get hurt.

PRINCE'S DOCK.—The s. s. Inchulva, Bessie Morris, and Sirdhana entered, and the Kepler left, the dock yesterday.

ASSAULT.—Ebrahim Parpia, a hawker, was yesterday convicted by Mr. W. Webb of assaulting Fakeer Mahomed Sunta, a shopkeeper. He was fined Rs. 15, in default to suffer three weeks' rigorous imprisonment.

STATEMENT OF SILVER BALANCE IN THE MINT.—The value of silver in the Mint on the morning of the 23rd May. was Rs. 17,70,061. New coin paid during the week Rs. 50,000. The balance left was Rs. 17,20,061.

PRINCE'S DOCK ACCIDENT.—Bugwan Budhoo, a Mussulman lad aged 10 years, belonging to the s.s. Ellora, was accidentally knocked into the hold of the ship by a sling containing some bags, and sustained a fracture of the skull. He was conveyed to the G. T. Hospital, where he lies in a precarious state.

ACCIDENT ON BOARDSHIP.—A Calassee, named Fakeer Ismail, of the P. & O. Company's steam-ship Rohilla, on Wednesday last had his right hand cut off by the cogs of a winch, while slacking away of a wire hawser. He was immediately attended to by the ship's doctor, and was afterwards sent to the J. J. Hospital for further treatment.

FIRE.—A fire broke out in the shop of Jugjeevun Tooljaram, at the Jaitha Mooljee Market, on Wednesday last. On the alarm being raised, prompt assistance was rendered by the neighbours and the police, and the fire was speedily extinguished before any serious damage was caused. The fire is said to have originated from a box of lucifer matches having suddenly ignited. The damage is estimated at Rs. 25.

HYDERABAD CONTINGENT.—A correspondent informs us that Sir Charles Gough, K.C.B., V.C., has issued orders (as an experiment) that all horses in the four cavalry regiments and four field batteries H. C. are not to be shod in future. Lieut. Turner, R. A., doing duty with the Field Horse Artillery at Bolarum, will be posted to the No. 4 Battery at Aurangabad as officiating Commandant, vice Captain Selfe, R. A., on furlough.

He was sentenced to six weeks' rigorous imprisonment.—Dwarka Mahadoo, a labourer, and Adinja Moti, a shopkeeper, were yesterday convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee, prisoner No. 1 of stealing sundry copper pots and wearing apparel, of the value of Rs. 3, belonging to three different persons, and prisoner No. 2 of dishonestly receiving the said property knowing the same to have been stolen. Prisoner No. 1 was sentenced to three months' rigorous imprisonment and prisoner No. 2 was fined Rs. 30.

NIZAM'S P. W. D.—On the death of Mr. Haskoll, Superintending Engineer, Chanda Survey, the appointment has been abolished, which means a saving to the State of H. S. Rs. 14,400. In Mr. Haskoll the Nizam's Government has lost a very experienced Engineer. He first belonged to the Madras Railway and then was appointed to the Irrigation Works at Kurnool, when Mr. Hardy Johnston obtained his services for the Nizam's P. W. D. Mr. Palmer, Superintending Engineer, is now Officiating Secretary to Government in the P. W. D. in the place of Mr. Wilkinson, who has gone on four months' leave to Europe. Mr. Wilkinson is expected to return some time at the beginning of August, in time for the Hyderabad Races. Another reorganization will shortly take place, when the duplicate offices of the Secretariat and Superintending Engineer will be amalgamated.

CRIMINAL BREACH OF TRUST.—Mr. Stephen Wm. Anderson, an Assistant in the firm of Sigg-Sulzer & Co., Elphinstone Circle, Fort, on Wednesday evening last handed over to the police a clerk in the employ of that firm, named Eduljee Bapoojee, charging him with criminal breach of trust in respect of a sum of Rs. 4,900, the property of the firm. The complainant stated that during the month of May last the prisoner drew from the cashier of the firm about Rs. 7,000 for the purpose of paying duty at the Custom House on imported goods, and being asked to make up his accounts for the amount he had drawn did not do so, but absented himself, and on his accounts being investigated, a deficiency of about Rs. 4,900 was discovered. The clerk was yesterday charged before Mr. W. Webb with criminal breach of trust. The case was postponed for hearing to the 9th instant at the request of the accused, to enable him to employ counsel for his defence.

A TRUMPED-UP CHARGE.—The case of the police Jemadar Wasoodow Mahadevjee, No. 236, versus Balkrishna Jagannath Bhingly, in which the accused was charged with giving false information of theft to the complainant, with the intent to injure or cause annoyance to one Prag Sewak, was brought to a close on Wednesday last by the accused being discharged. Immediately afterwards, Hurrychund Abbajee and Hurryshunker Rugoonath, who had given evidence as witnesses in the above case, were charged before the same Magistrate (Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee) at the instance of Mr. Acting Superintendent Brewin, with being persons of notoriously bad livelihood and dangerous characters. The accused persons admitted having assisted each other in trumping up a false charge against Prag Sewak, and Hurrychund also admitted having been on a previous occasion convicted of theft. They were ordered to be bound over in a sum of Rs. 1,000 each in their own recognizances, and two sureties in a sum of Rs. 500, to keep the peace for a period of twelve months.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS IN BOMBAY.—The total number of deaths registered during the week ending Tuesday, 31st May, was 492, being 16 more than in the previous week, 91 more than the week ending 1st June, 1880, and 28 less than the mean of the corresponding period in the preceding five years. During the week 329 births were reported in the different districts of the city. The rate of mortality per 1,000 of the population per annum was 38·08. There were 111 deaths from remittent fever, being 10 more than the previous week and 30 less than in the same period last year. The deaths from diseases of the respiratory system, diarrhœa, and dysentery were last week 72, 32, and 11, respectively, as compared with 29, 11, and 20 last year. There were 34 deaths from cholera last week as compared with 30 in the week previous. The following remark is appended by the Health Officer to his return :—"As there is no allowance made for the increase of population, natural and extraordinary, during recent years, the percentages of mortality are unreliable."

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

THE B. I. S. N. Co.'s steamer Sirdhana, Captain G. N. Brown, arrived in Bombay harbour yesterday from Kurrachee, which port she left on the 30th May at 6 a. m., with detachments of the Poona Horse and 23rd Regiment N. I. The strength of the detachments was as follows :—1 European officer, 3 Native officers, 116 men, 12 followers, and 1 horse, of the 23rd N. I., and 3 European officers, 6 Native officers, 109 men, 104 followers, 124 horses. The Sirdhana also brought 5 officers and 1 lady of a British regiment, and 100 followers of the Commissariat Department. The following are the names of officers :—Lieut.-Col. C. D. La Fonche, Lieut. and Adjt. H. Minchin, and Sarg. A. K. Stewart, Poona Horse; Major J. Gatacre, 23rd N. I.; Colonel S. De B. Edwards, 2nd Grenadiers; Major and Mrs. C. G. Heathcote, 18th; Lieut. H. S. A. Fuller, Commt. Dept.; Lieut. W. S. Birdwood, 3rd N. L. I.; and Lieut. G. C. Dobbs, Commt. Dept. The men disembarked at the Prince's Dock and encamped at the Esplanade. The Poona Horse will be sent by rail to Delhi. Nadir's army was beset by the Afghan, and these lawless tribes secured no small share of the Indian loot to the Persian conqueror. At all events, the stone was once again brought into India for sale at Delhi. A Kandahari declared he was a shawl merchant, and had acquired the gem in the way of business whilst travelling in Persia. It was bought from him by a Delhi noble, in whose family it has remained until now, when it is again seeking a new owner. It is rare, indeed, to see a ruby of such a size, and rarer still to find a stone of which the history can be traced, step by step, for over three hundred years.—Indian Daily News.

THE SHOOTING OF THE INFANTRY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "PIONEER."

SIR,—Awakened by recent events in the Transvaal, many corespondents are holding forth on the defects of our present system of musketry instruction, and suggesting remedies and improvements. There is said to be wisdom in a multitude of counsellers, so permit me kindly to add my quota to what has already appeared on the subject. Let me first briefly state what the present training of the British Infantry soldier consists in; it will then be easier to judge what changes are necessary to improve his shooting on service. He fires now, annually, at a target—60 rounds in individual firing, 5 rounds in volleys, 5 rounds independently, 20 rounds in field firing; that is, 90 rounds altogether in the year. The individual firing may be got through in three, or even in two days, the field-firing, in a morning, and the volleys and independent in (say) a quarter of an hour each. This is all the practice in a year that a soldier gets. Small blame to him if with it he does not develop into a cool deliberate marksman. But let us just glance at the conditions under which even this pitiful modicum of instruction is imparted, and it must cease for ever to be a matter of surprise that in the noise, smoke, and confusion of an engagement, where a premium would be given for correct performance. This concludes the soldier's annual course of musketry instruction; and, calmly considering what has been stated, does any one suppose that it is a training calculated to make him a cool reliable shot? My remarks have grown wider, however, run to greater length than I anticipated; but the subject is such an important one that, with your permission, I will in another letter make some observations on a more practicable system to improve the shooting of our Infantry.

TOUT PEUT SE RETABLIR.

TWO WAYS OF LOOKING AT IT.

THE Director of Public Instruction in the Punjaub writes in his last report which has just been issued :—

It is sometimes asked why Government should spend so much money on the education of College students, and why such students, if they value a University education, should not be required to pay for it themselves. The money saved by the abolition of Colleges might, it is urged, be expended to greater advantage on Primary education. It seems to be believed that Government money is expended solely for the benefit of a few fortunate young men, and that Government itself derives no advantage from the expenditure. Nothing could possibly be more fallacious than this view of the matter. College students have not the means to pay the cost of their own education, and if their so doing were made a condition of the maintenance of a College, the College would cease to exist. If the College were closed, their would be no efficient masters available for English schools, and no qualified Superintendents for Primary schools, and the measure would be a fatal blow to the Secondary and Primary schools of the Province. It is not, however, the interests of Secondary education and of Primary education alone that depend on the existence of an efficient college. The most important appointments under Government, that are open to natives, are now generally bestowed on men, who have received a college education. These must be given to men of inferior attainments, if no college existed. The numerous appointments also in Government and Railway and other offices now held by natives of the Province, would in such a case be necessarily conferred on Bengali Babus, whom it would be necessary to attract by the offer of much higher salaries than are now found to be sufficient.

Putting out of consideration the evident advantages of employing Punjabis in preference to foreigners, there can be no doubt that to cut off the supply of efficient candidates for employment by closing the College, would be the falsest economy that could be imagined, as it would entail an increase of expenditure on the salaries of Government employés, that would far exceed the saving effected.

The Lieut. Governor of the Punjaub on the foregoing remarks :—

The Director notices the large cost of educating each college student in the Lahore Government College, amounting to Rs. 570-10, of which Rs. 532-5 was borne by Government. The necessity of expending public money upon high education of this character is vindicated by the Director in paragraph 10 of his report. There can be no doubt that at the stage of educational progress at which the Punjab has arrived it is too early to withdraw the Government aid from such education. But the Lieutenant-Governor is unable entirely to concur with the arguments which will be adduced in support of this policy, which do not appear to contemplate the extreme desirability of a gradual withdrawal of such aid as educational progress becomes greater. When the demand for high education shall have reached such a pitch as no longer to require the help so afforded by Government aid, such aid should be largely withdrawn. Some progress has, undoubtedly, been made towards this state of things in the Punjab; but it is too early yet for the State to withdraw its fostering care and leave the pursuit of higher cultivation to be followed at the cost of those who may desire it. The Lieutenant-Governor cannot concur with the view expressed in the concluding sentence of this paragraph of the report, that the withdrawal of the Government aid for high education would entail an increase of expenditure in the salaries of Government employés, as he believes that the attractions offered by the public service are sufficient to induce at any time a number of candidates to seek the training which is necessary for them in order to obtain employment under the State, and the expenditure which the Government incurs must rather be justified by its general effect in bringing about a higher standard of cultivation than by any direct return which thereby accrues to Government.

BENGAL.

SURGEONS' APPOINTMENTS.—It is probable that Surgeon N. J. Halpin, at present in medical charge of the 16th Bengal Cavalry, will succeed to the Civil Surgeoncy of Durbhunga, in the place of Surgeon-Major J. G. Gaw, who goes to Patna.—Pioneer.

THEFTS FROM E. I. RAILWAY CARRIAGES.—On Friday last, an European Superintendent, accompanied by a native detective and a constable, all of the E. I. R. police, paid a visit to the Census office, No. 17, Old Court House-street, where they had traced a thief, employed as clerk, who alleged to have been in the habit of stealing pieces of India-rubber by cutting them off the rubber beds for window shutter in the carriages. The detective identified a few pieces of rubber as being the property of the E. I. R. from the K. Co.'s mark thereon, the letter R, which was almost illegible. The party accused is assumed to have been a daily passenger, and to have carried on his stealing propensity in the way alluded to for the purpose, it is suspected, of selling the bits of rubber, to the writer of a census office, who are not supplied with either rubber or pencil by Government, and whose number being legion, afforded, in the opinion of the police officers referred to, a strong inducement for this act of petty larceny.—Statesman.

A GEM WITH A HISTORY.—Many famous precious stones have their history. A few days ago we saw, in the possession of Messrs. Hamilton and Co., an unusually large ruby, which bears on its very face the history of its having been at the head of the list in a history. It is a real, not a spinel ruby, and is of an irregular shape, something like a large date, about two inches long, by an inch and a quarter broad, and something over half an inch thick in its thicker part. The colour is a fine cerise. The stone has at some time been perforated along its longest axis, a work of surprising labour. This was probably done to allow of the stone being strung in the front of a dress with other jewels, instead of being worn as a ring. It weighs 181 rutiees. The ruby has on it some four inscriptions. The first states that it belonged to the Emperor Akbar. It seems after this to have passed into the possession of the Ranas of Godeypore, as another inscription records that it was given by Rana Unmeer Sing to Sultan Khyrun, afterwards Shah Jehan. It bears also the statement that it had belonged to Alamghier; and subsequently it was taken away by Nadir Shah, forming the jewel in the left arm of the Peacock Throne of Delhi. Nadir's army was beset by the Afghan, and these lawless tribes secured no small share of the Indian loot to the Persian conqueror. At all events, the stone was once again brought into India for sale at Delhi. A Kandahari declared he was a shawl merchant, and had acquired the gem in the way of business whilst travelling in Persia. It was bought from him by a Delhi noble, in whose family it has remained until now, when it is again seeking a new owner. It is rare, indeed, to see a ruby of such a size, and rarer still to find a stone of which the history can be traced, step by step, for over three hundred years.—Indian Daily News.

AFGHAN CLAIMANTS AT CALCUTTA.

At the High Court yesterday (May 30), before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Wilson, an unusually interesting case was heard and decided. It appeared that in the year 1818 an Afghan Sirdar, named Atta Mahomed Khan, instituted a suit in the old Supreme Court against three native traders, named respectively Rangazani, Narayen, and Gocoolchund, and obtained a decree in the year 1820 for the amount claimed, Rs. 17,000, together with costs. After obtaining the decree, this Atta Mahomed Khan set about recovering the amount of it, which had been paid into Court, but before he could do so, he took ill and died leaving, as it appeared, no heirs or claimants in Calcutta. Many years then elapsed, and it was believed that the decree was withdrawn. In October of the year 1841 another Afghan, named Atta Mahomed Khan appeared, putting himself forward as the son of the other, and instituted proceedings to have the amount of the decree paid over to him. He appeared to have established his right, and obtained an injunction for the payment to him of the amount of the decree. But this man, too, immediately after obtaining the injunction, and before he had time to lay hands on the money, died, and the amount still continued in the hands of the Court, increasing year by year from accrual of interest and compound interest. In January, 1880, another Afghan, named Mahomed Hossein Khan, appeared and claimed the money, on the ground that he was a son of the original Atta Mahomed Khan, Durani; but strangely enough, this man too died before the case came to an end, and the amount went on steadily increasing, until it has now reached the respectable sum of Rs. 1,85,000.

Three Afghan Sirdars, named respectively Daood Mahomed Khan, Jan Mahomed Khan, and Faiz Mahomed Khan, have now appeared and claimed the money, representing themselves as the direct descendants of old Atta Mahomed Khan. They had come all the way from Kabul, accredited with letters from the present Amir of Afghanistan, stating that what they asserted was facts, and seeking the British Government to allow them to establish their claims. They claimed not only in their own right, but also as representatives of several others, males and females, among whom is a widow of the late Amir Dost Mahomed Khan.

Messrs. Jackson, Stephen, and Abdur Rahman, barristers, appeared for the claimants.

Mr. Bonnerjee, Officiating Standing Counsel, appeared on behalf of the Government.

Mr. Jackson related the facts as above stated, and read out the petition on which the claim was based. He said that the petition was made under section 244 of Act VIII. of 1859, and after reading it in all the official correspondence on the subject, together with an enormously long pedigree roll, which was sworn to as being correct by two of the Afghan Sirdars who claimed.

Mr. Bonnerjee said that it would be desirable the Court should know exactly the position which he, in behalf of the Government, took in this matter. The Government were quite willing, if his lordship was satisfied that these gentlemen and ladies were really entitled to this money by reason of their being heirs of Atta Mahomed Khan, to pay over the money to them at once, subject to the terms which had already been made as to costs. His instructions were not to raise any objection of a technical nature to a decree going, and to leave the matter upon the merits, and the merits entirely and to his lordship's consideration. There was one thing which had prevented the Government from paying the money themselves. They were quite willing to pay, but as his lordship had heard, an application to revive the suit had been made before, and the Supreme Court directed that the money should be paid to the first person who had been called a pretender, Atta Mahomed Khan, Durani, and another application of a similar nature made by another application. The Government simply wished to guard themselves against other claimants, and had directed the matter to be referred to this Court.

His Lordship, after hearing the evidence, said that he thought he could declare that the claims of the three representatives to the money now in the hands of the Government had been established, but he did not think he could made any declaration as to the shares to which the parties claiming would be entitled. He also ordered the cost of the application, and the advances made by the Government to the claimants, to be deducted from the amount payable to them.—Englishman.

MADRAS.

DAMAGING SALUTES.—We should be glad to know who will be held responsible for any disaster which may result from the order issued some months ago regarding the firing of salutes in Bangalore. The houses in South Parade ought, no doubt, to be strong enough to resist the assaults of blank ammunition; but, as a matter of fact, they are not, and fresh cracks and gaps in the walls are caused by each salvo which is discharged against them. We are quite unable to understand why it should be more loyal to fire across than up the Maidan, and why the former, as endangering property, is a more costly operation,—in which case, the fitness of things demands that the sacrifice should be completed by requiring the officers responsible for the order to reside in South Parade.—Bangalore Post.

THE DISTURBED STATE OF IRELAND.

DUBLIN, May 3.

MR. DILLON, M.P., is now in the infirmary, and is under the care of Dr. Kenny, who is specially appointed by the Land League to look after him. He is not suffering from any actual ailment, but is of a delicate constitution. On his first entry into the exercise yard there was a noisy demonstration by the other prisoners, which was at once suppressed, the whole party being remitted to their cells. The Government are doing all they can to make the imprisonment as little irksome as possible to the prisoners. Every reasonable concession which they ask for is freely granted, and the only question which may arise is, not whether the discipline is too strict, but whether it is not too lenient. Even the more liberal rules which have been made especially for their advantage are not strictly enforced. In consequence of complaints made about "the cage" in which the inmates receive visitors, the prison authorities have ordered that the construction shall be modified. It now extends in height to the ceiling, and it is to be reduced to the level of the prisoner's head. A waiting-room is also to be fitted up in the Court-house adjoining the goal for the accommodation of visitors. Another arrest to which importance is attached was made yesterday under the Protection Act. Mr. John Leaney, of Richmond-hill, Kilmainham, was lodged in gaol yesterday morning under the Lord-Lieutenant's warrant. He is manager to Messrs. Connor, Dunne, and Kelly, tanners and parchment manufacturers, Watling-street. He
